HURRAH for the chemical fertilizer factory—we are going to have it soon.

GATHER on the street corners and talk about the latest—the new fertilizer factory.

WHEN our fertilizer factory is built it will insure our having a cotton factory, which is much needed in Ocala.

THE new fertilizer factory and other industries on foot for Ocala are going to put new life into our people and a boom on Ocala.

THE freeze is a blessing in disguise to our state as a state. It will throw our people back on their own native industries, and be the means of bringing about the most prosperous times ever known in the state.

SILVER SPRINGS

The Silver Springs road ing toward town at a rapid ran. Some two miles of right of is cut, and about a mile of heaviest grading finished. It will certainly be completed in good time.

THEY RAN WELL,

But the Newspaper Man Was n't in It.

Champion Hose Company No. 1 ran again last night with only part of their number, but they made a splendid run. The STAR reporter persuaded the boys to let him hang onto the rope in the absence of the other boys, and he learned to his sorrow that watching the boys run from a distance and doing it yourself are two different things.

This misguided newspaper man knows he was on the ground when the word was given to go, but doesn't think he struck ground again—except one high place—till the end was reached; and as to turning loose, that would have been certain death.

Osceola street is very rough, but the boys get there just the same.
